

AXA Research Fund

Through Research, Protection

Paris, the 25th of July, 2014

Declaration of Commitment of the AXA Research Fund to the Charter for European Researchers and the Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers

The AXA Research Fund, represented by Godefroy BEAUVALLET (Director), expresses its full support of the European Commission's Recommendation in the European Charter for Researchers and Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers (Charter and Code)

Accordingly, actions will be carried out, together with AXA Research Fund's partners, to contribute to an attractive, supportive and stimulating environment in which to carry out research and recognizes the importance of providing its researchers with the training and means to be internationally and intersectorally competitive and mobile.

The AXA Research Fund considers that the recommendations included in the Charter and Code help make the career of a researcher more attractive and enhance the quality of the institutional research and innovation activities. It also commits itself to supporting, whenever possible, all proposals for the development of the legislative or statutory framework which is essential for the implementation of the Charter and Code.

By subscribing to the principles of the Charter and the Code, the AXA Research Fund, confirms that it will make attractiveness of the research careers one of the major tenets of its strategy, in order to contribute to the building of the European Research Area.

Godefroy BEAUVALLET
Director of the AXA Research Fund

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to be 'G. Beauvallet', written over the printed name and title.

Further information about the AXA Research Fund is available on: <http://researchfund.axa.com/>

AXA
Research Fund
Through Research, Protection